

Science Week Year 4 Spring 2019

We did some gardening outside in the mud and the rain!

We used recycled plastic to make fish as part of our upcycling project.

We investigated the effects of electricity and it made our hair stand up!

Our parents came in on Friday afternoon to help us to complete a survey of the local environment and dangers to the habitat.

